

Midlands Franchise Take Away: For Lease

Asking Price: To be discussed with serious client

Turnover: To be discussed with serious client

New Franchise takeaway business operating in a prime Midlands Town within one hour of Dublin. This takeaway is fitted out to the highest of standards with all the equipment required included in the agreement. The business is currently fully operational and can start running with the new owner without interruption to trading.

The business would suit a hands-on owner operator initially with opportunity to acquire further sites if successful here. The successful individual will be required to complete the franchisor recruitment process which is very straightforward. In return if successful you will become part of an existing franchise aligned to a major Irish Business.

The business has huge potential for the right candidate. Want to become your own boss with the support of a franchise organisation then contact us now and we will take it from there.
